

Please do not change the No Call Law. Why should banks receive preferred treatment under this law? Their motivation is the same as all other telemarketers; making money. It has been wonderful not to be interrupted anymore during the evening and I'd like to see it continue.